

Announcement

By virtue of the Act 447/JUST

(Justice for Uncompensated Survivors Today)

signed on May 9, 2018 by US President Donald Trump, giving the US State Department the right to support international organizations associating victims of the Holocaust, as well as providing them with all needed help through its diplomatic channels in recovering Jewish estates which are without the right of inheritance

and

in reference to the words of US Secretary of State - Mike Pompeo of February 13, 2019, uttered during a visit to Poland:

“ (...) I urge my Polish colleagues to make progress in the field of comprehensive legislation regarding the restitution of private property for people who lost their property during the Holocaust era (...)”

it is stated that this property may be transferred to cover Jewish claims in Poland.